DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Simon et al. (The Journal of Investigative Dermatology, 105: 432-437, 1995).

This rejection was explained in the previous Office action.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed January 20, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

First, the previous rejection under 35 USC 112, second paragraph has been overcome by the amendment and is hereby withdrawn.

Applicants respond to the rejection under 35 USC 102, in part, by arguing that insertion of "consisting of" excludes filaggrin peptides other than those derived from SEQ ID No.: 7 and that the instant claims are intended to read only on an antigen having one particular sequence and not a mixture of several antigens.

Examiner disagrees that other peptides are excluded. The transitional phrase "consisting of" is usually applied to composition claims wherein a composition consisting of certain ingredients contains only those specified ingredients and nothing else. The instant claims are compound claims, not composition claims, so the meaning of "consisting of" is not very clear. It may be possible to recast the instant claims as composition claims containing only a single antigen rather than a mixture. However, such a single antigen is still present in the material taught by Simon et al. The "peptides derived from human epidermis that are not homogenous" (quoted from remarks) still contain the claimed antigen and, thus, the claims remain anticipated.

Applicants' attorney is encouraged to telephone Examiner to discuss amendments that would overcome the rejection.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

5. No claim is allowed.
